

Dara Lindenbaum's Biography

Dara Lindenbaum is a member at Sandler Reiff Lamb Rosenstein & Birkenstock, P.C. She advises federal, state, and local political committees and candidates; ballot measure committees; 501(c)(3) and (c)(4) organizations; and for-profit corporations. She counsels clients on complying with state and federal campaign finance and election laws, and represents clients before the Federal Election Commission, federal and state courts, and state and local election boards. Lindenbaum serves as outside general counsel for a number of organizations and works with directors, boards, and staff to structure their programs and navigate the complex legal and compliance landscape.

Before joining Sandler Reiff, Lindenbaum was an associate counsel in the Voting Rights Project at the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, where she focused on election law and voting rights. Lindenbaum earned her bachelor's degree from Northeastern University and her law degree from the George Washington University Law School. She is a member of the Bars of the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Georgia.
