

Wes Allen Bio

Wes Allen serves as Alabama's 54th Secretary of State where he is the state's chief elections official. Prior to his election to his current office, Secretary Allen spent nearly a decade as a Pike County's Probate Judge, their senior election official, before being elected to the Alabama House of Representatives where he served as the Vice-Chair of the Legislature's Constitution, Campaigns and Elections committee. Secretary Allen is honored to appear before this committee to offer his knowledge on matters concerning our nation's elections.