

Mr. Isaac Cramer
Executive Director, Charleston County (SC) Board of Voter Registration and Elections

---

Isaac Cramer is the Executive Director of the Charleston County (SC) Board of Voter Registration and Elections.

Mr. Cramer has actively worked towards improving election administration and accessibility, earning respect within the state's election community. He serves as the 1st Vice President for the South Carolina Association of Registration and Election Officials, where he has advocated for updates to election laws to increase accessibility and efficiency. He completed the national Certified Election Registration Administrator program in 2023.

Mr. Cramer was instrumental in passing a major reform bill in 2022, which brought early voting to SC and allowed counties to process absentee ballots ahead of Election Day, thereby making voting more convenient and efficient for South Carolinians.

His commitment to excellence has garnered prestigious recognition, including the receipt of the 2022 EAC Clearinghouse Award for Partnership at the Polls and the 2023 South Carolina Association of Counties J. Mitchell Graham Memorial Award. In addition, he has been honored with the State of South Carolina's "Excellence in Elections" award.

Mr. Cramer's leadership and expertise have also earned him recognition at the national level, where he serves as vice chair on the National Association of Counties' elections subcommittee and serves on the Board of Advisors for the US Election Assistance Commission. He is also a member of the Bipartisan Policy Center Task Force on Elections, and he is a member of the Committee for Safe and Secure Elections (CSSE).

He received his BA in Political Science from Wheaton College (IL).
